Summary

This report presents information about worship and other activities taking place in Church of England cathedrals from 1st January to 31st December 2019. Data are collected from all 42 mainland Church of England cathedrals and from Westminster Abbey, through an annual cathedral statistics survey. Among other things, the survey asks about attendance at Sunday and midweek services; Easter and Christmas services; school visits; baptisms, marriages, and funerals; musical activities and volunteering. For reference, the survey form and guidance notes can be found in Appendix 2.

Worship attendance (page 7)

- A total of 37,300 people per week (82% adults and 18% children aged under 16) were reported attending usual cathedral services in 2019, a similar number to 2018 (37,100). Total weekly attendance is 13% larger in 2019 than it was a decade ago in 2009.
- Weekly attendance at usual cathedral services is split fairly evenly between Sunday (47%) and midweek (53%) services.
- Total annual attendance at additional regular services (i.e. not necessarily weekly but conducted at least once a month - including fresh expressions of Church and regular school services) was 502,800 people in 2019, of whom 67% (just over 337,900 people) were attending regular schools services.
- More than 820,000 people were reported as having attended 2,400 specially arranged services and events in 2019. Just under 1.3 million people were reported as having attended 5,800 public / civic events held in cathedrals in 2019.

Festival attendance (page 12)

- Total attendance reported at Easter services at cathedrals in 2019 was 52,000 with just over half of these (54%) taking communion; attendance in 2019 was 10% lower than in 2018. Attendance during Holy Week (from Palm Sunday to Good Friday) was 93,000, 4% higher than in 2014, when it was first reported.
- Total reported Christmas attendance was 132,000 in 2019. Nearly a quarter (24%) of attendees in 2019 took communion. Services during Advent (including carol services, concerts, nativity plays, and so on) had a record high reported attendance of 665,000 in 2019, an increase of 5% from 631,000 in 2014 when it was first reported.

Visitors (page 16)

- Almost 10 million people visited cathedrals in 2019, a drop of 4% from 2018 (10.1 million). In 2019 39% of attendees were paying / donating for entry. A further 1.3 million people visited Westminster Abbey, where 99% of visitors paid / donated for entry.

Regular Attendance

Usual Sunday and Midweek Attendance

Figure 1 and Figure 2 show the total number of people reported, per week, at all 42 Church of England mainland cathedrals at services on the weekly calendar in a ‘normal’ week. A ‘normal’ week refers to those weeks that are not major festivals or contained in a peak holiday period, and that do not include special events or services.

Data are separated into Sunday and midweek attendance, where the midweek count only includes services held Monday to Saturday and excludes Sunday services. People attending more than one service on the same day or in the same week were, wherever possible, only counted once no matter how many services they attended.

Figure 1: Sunday and Midweek attendance (per week) at Church of England cathedrals, 2009-2019

In 2019, a weekly total of 37,300 people (of whom 82% were adults and 18% were children) were reported at cathedral services; this is an increase of 13% from 2009. Sunday attendance has remained basically stable while attendance at midweek services has grown by 35% over the decade, mostly in the period 2009 to 2013, after which attendance was broadly stable.

Figure 2: Usual Sunday and midweek attendance (per week) at Church of England cathedrals, 1995-2019¹

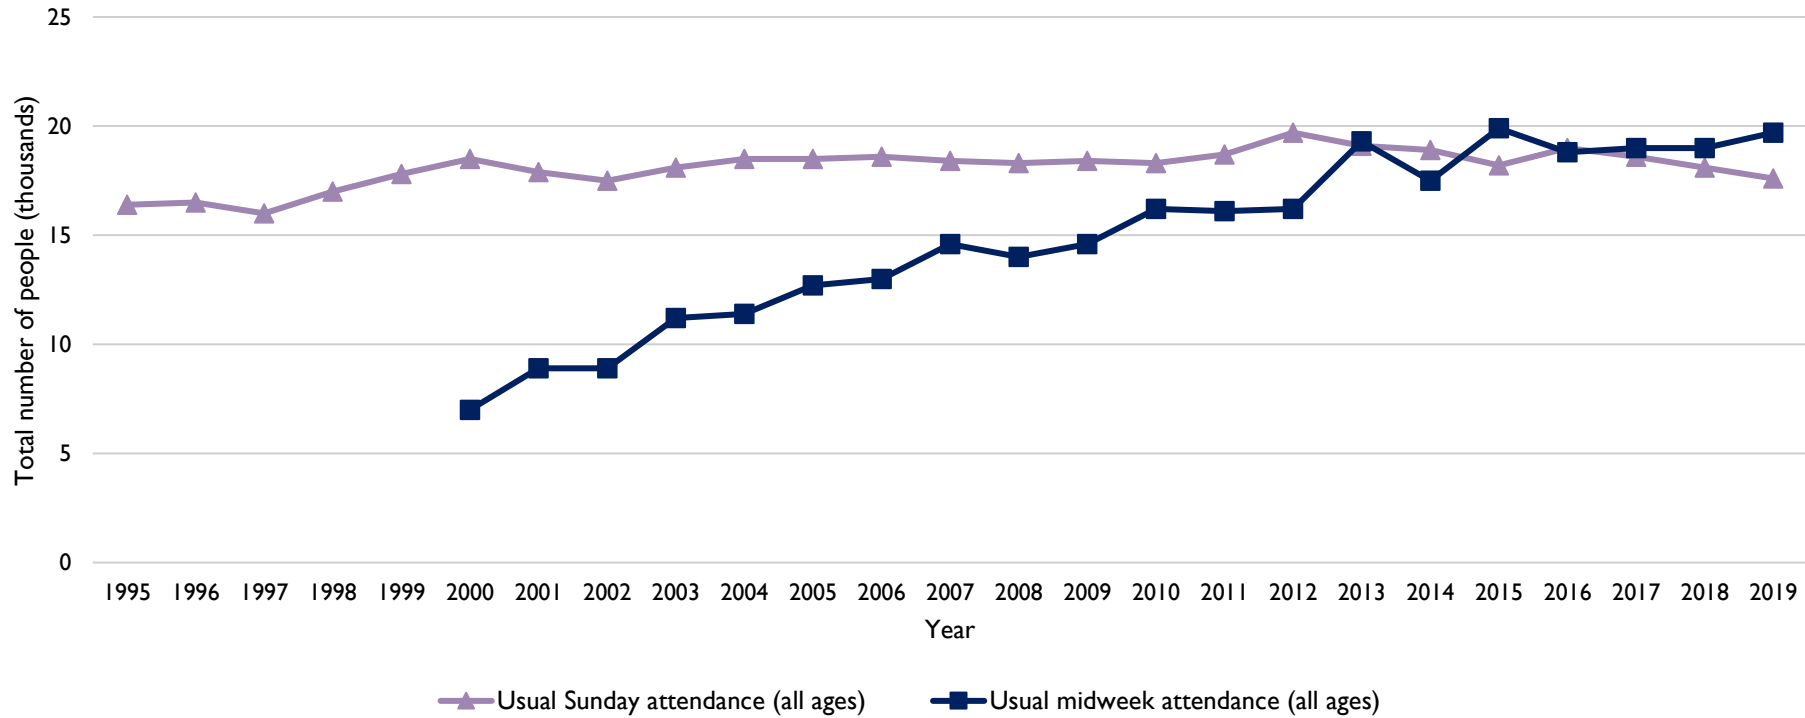

Figure 2 shows usual weekly attendance at Sunday and midweek services over a longer timeframe, illustrating the rise in attendance at midweek services from 7,000 in 2000 (when first reported) to a peak of 19,900 in 2015, since when it has remained basically stable.

Additional Regular Services

Figure 3 shows the total reported annual attendance for 2019 at ‘regular’ services. These refer to additional services that happen at least once a month but not necessarily weekly and are not part of the weekly pattern of services (i.e. those included in Figure 1).

Data are shown in three categories – regular fresh expressions of Church (and other community services), regular services for schools, and all other regular services. A fresh expression of Church is a form of church established primarily for the benefit of people who are not yet “members” of any church. Further information about identifying fresh expressions of Church is available here: <http://www.freshexpressions.org.uk>. Data for fresh expressions of Church are also shown in Figure 3b, to show the change between years more clearly.

Throughout 2019, 502,800 people were reported to have attended regular services conducted at least once a month (including fresh expressions of Church and school services), as shown in Figure 3. Of these, two thirds (67%) were reported at regular school services, equating to 337,900 people which was double the figure in 2013 (170,700), when it was first reported.

The number reported at fresh expressions of Church has fallen by 42% from 14,700 in 2013 to 8,500 in 2018, almost entirely due to three cathedrals either holding significantly fewer fresh expressions of Church services or not reporting them from 2017 – this drop is evident in Figure 3b.

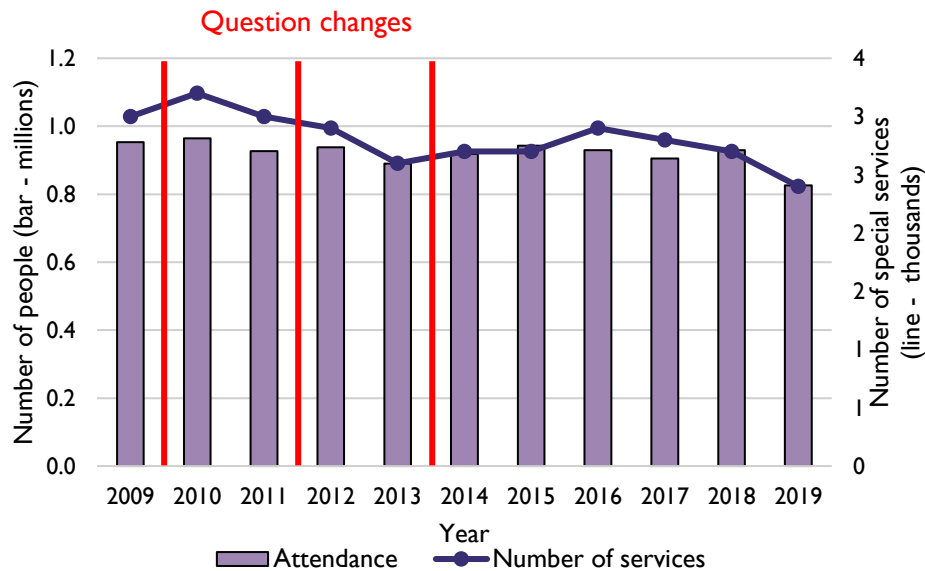

² The wording of the question asking about regular services was changed in 2013 to ensure the weekly pattern of services was not included. This resulted in a reduced total, hence only data for 2013 onwards are shown in Figure 3.

Special Event Attendance

Specially arranged services are not included in average weekly attendance, shown in Figure 1, or the total annual attendance for regular services, shown in Figure 3, as they are not part of the regular pattern of services and therefore they are included separately in this section.

Figure 4 shows the total number of people reported annually at ‘specially arranged services’, which includes diocesan or episcopal services (such as annual festivals / diocesan services), irregular services for schools (for example, an end of term / year service), other special services (excluding memorials) and services away from the cathedral building.

Figure 4: Annual number of and total annual attendance at specially arranged services at Church of England cathedrals, 2009-2019³

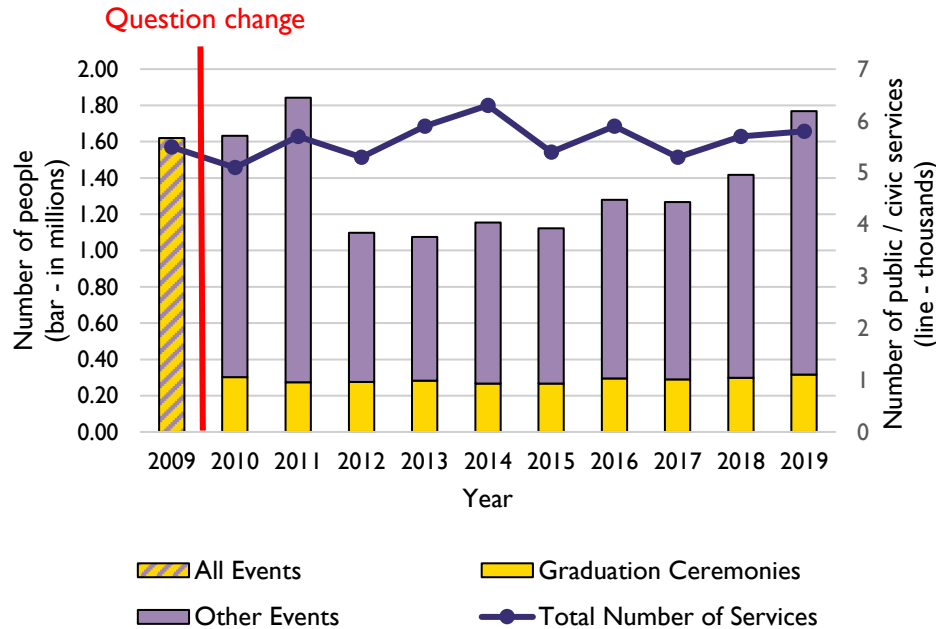

The total number of people reported at specially arranged services at Church of England cathedrals, shown in Figure 4³, decreased by 13% over the last 10 years, from 953,000 attending in 2009 to 826,000 in 2019. The number of services fell from 3,000 in 2009 to 2,400 in 2018 (a decrease of 20%).

Attendance at specially arranged services in 2019 is broken down as follows: 158,000 people at 490 diocesan or episcopal services; 296,000 people at 490 specially arranged school services; 350,000 people at 1,200 other special services; 22,000 people at 250 services held away from the cathedral. Full breakdown of data for all special services over the last ten years (where recorded) can be found in Appendix I.

³ Before 2010, a total figure was provided for number and total attendance at special services. From 2010, school services and other special services were reported separately; from 2012 diocesan or episcopal services were reported separately; from 2014, data were collected on services held away from the cathedral buildings.

Figure 5 shows the total number of people reported attending public or civic events, which includes graduation ceremonies, conferences, concerts and meetings. From 2010 onwards, data reported were broken down into graduation ceremonies and other events, whereas prior to 2010 only a total figure was reported.

Figure 5: Annual number of and total annual attendance at public / civic events at Church of England cathedrals, 2009-2019⁴

The total reported number of annual public / civic events in cathedrals in 2019 was 5,800, with a total attendance at these events of 1.77 million people, as shown in Figure 5. These are broken down as follows: 317,000 people at 330 graduation ceremonies; 1,451,000 people at 5,500 other public / civic events. A full breakdown from 2010 can be found in Appendix I.

The attendance at other public / civic events was 1.5 million in 2019, larger than the 1.3 million reported in 2010 (the first year this variable was broken down). The number of events in 2019 was also around 600 events larger in the same period. Attendance at graduation ceremonies has remained relatively stable year-on-year but numbers of ceremonies have risen from 260 in 2010 to 330 in 2019.

⁴ From 2010 onwards, data were reported broken down into graduation ceremonies and 'other' events. Prior to this, all public / civic events were grouped as one category.

Easter and Holy Week Attendance

Figure 6a shows the total number of people reported as attending services at Church of England cathedrals over Easter (including vigil services on Easter Eve). All data include adults, children and young people, clergy and laity, and the attendance figure includes both communicants and those that did not receive communion. Figure 6b shows attendance during Holy Week specified, since 2014, as the period from Palm Sunday to Good Friday. This information was first recorded in 2010 but without this clarification. Therefore extra data may have been included in Holy Week prior to 2014; thus only data from 2014 onwards are shown.

In 2019, total reported attendance at Easter services was 52,000 people compared with 50,000 in 2009. There was a drop in attendance of 6,000 between 2018 and 2019. The number of Easter communicants has remained between 26,000 and 29,000 since 2009.

Total reported attendance during Holy Week in 2019 was 93,000, which is a 2% drop from 2018. However, the 2019 figure is 4% larger than the 89,000 in 2014 when it was first reported.

⁵ Reported consistently since 2014.

Christmas and Advent Attendance

Figure 7a shows the total number of people reported attending Church of England cathedrals on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. All data include adults, children and young people, clergy and laity, and the attendance figure includes both communicants and those that did not receive communion. Figure 7b shows attendance during Advent which, since 2014, was specified as the period from Advent Sunday to 23 December. Prior to 2014 the definitions varied slightly from year to year meaning data may not be comparable; thus, only data from 2014 onwards are shown.

In 2019, total Christmas attendance reported was 132,000, with 32,000 communicants.

Services during Advent, i.e. Advent Sunday to 23 December, reported a record high attendance of 665,000 in 2019 compared with 631,000 in 2014 (when it was first reported), an increase of 5%.

⁶ Reported consistently since 2014.

Occasional Offices

Baptisms and Thanksgiving services

During 2019, there were a total of 740 baptisms and 10 thanksgivings conducted in all Church of England cathedrals. This means that there has been a decrease of 10% in the number of baptisms over the last decade. The data shows a high point for number of baptisms in 2017, followed by a sharper decline.

For 2019, baptisms and thanksgivings were split into four categories: infants under one year, children aged 1 to 4 years, children aged 5-10 years (previously 5-12 years), young people aged 11-17 years and 18+ years adults (previously youth/adult/13+ years)

Alongside the overall decrease, there has been a decrease of 42% in infant baptisms (children aged under 1 year) from 380 in 2009 to 220 in 2019. In 2019, infants under one year accounted for 30% of all baptisms, while children aged 1- 4 years accounted for 18%, children aged 5 – 10 years accounted for 8%. Young people (11 – 17 years) accounted for 10% and adults (18+ years) accounted for 34% of baptisms.

Marriage, Funeral and Memorial services

240 marriages were conducted in cathedrals during 2019, which is a decrease of 23% over the last 10 years. The number of blessings of marriage services in cathedrals fluctuates from year to year. The number of marriage services, shown in Figure 9, includes couples newly married in the relevant year, whilst blessings of marriage includes those services with prayer and dedication in the cathedral after a civil marriage, and does not include the renewal of vows.

The total number of funeral services, shown in Figure 10, is broken down by the number of services held in the cathedral and the number of services conducted on behalf of the cathedral at a crematorium or cemetery (excluding committal or burial of ashes only). In each case, the number of funerals include those conducted on behalf of the cathedral or parish by any minister, including stipendiary, self-supporting and retired clergy. The number of memorial services (not including a funeral) held in cathedrals were first recorded in 2010 and are not included in the total funeral services figure; therefore, data are shown separately in Figure 10.

⁷ Memorial services first recorded in 2010.

Visitors

The total number of visitors is shown in Figure 11. Visitors are defined as either people paying or donating at the point of entry or those who do not pay but possibly donate at alms box (excluding those who attend services and events). Prior to 2010, only the total number of visitors was reported. From 2010 onwards, visitors were recorded in two categories - those paying (either by donation or paying at point of entry) and those that did not pay (and excluding those attending services and events mentioned elsewhere in this report).

In 2019, there were 9.7 million visitors reported by cathedrals. While this is a 4% drop from the 10.1 million visitors reported in 2018, it is a similar number of total visitors to a decade ago in 2009 (9.9 million visitors).

Despite only a few cathedrals charging for entry, paying or donating visitors accounted for 39% of all visitors (3.8 million people) to cathedrals in 2019.

The number of cathedrals providing data for paying or donating visitors for 2019 was 22, which is 10 less than the 32 that provided data in 2010 (the first year in which this figure was broken down).

Education

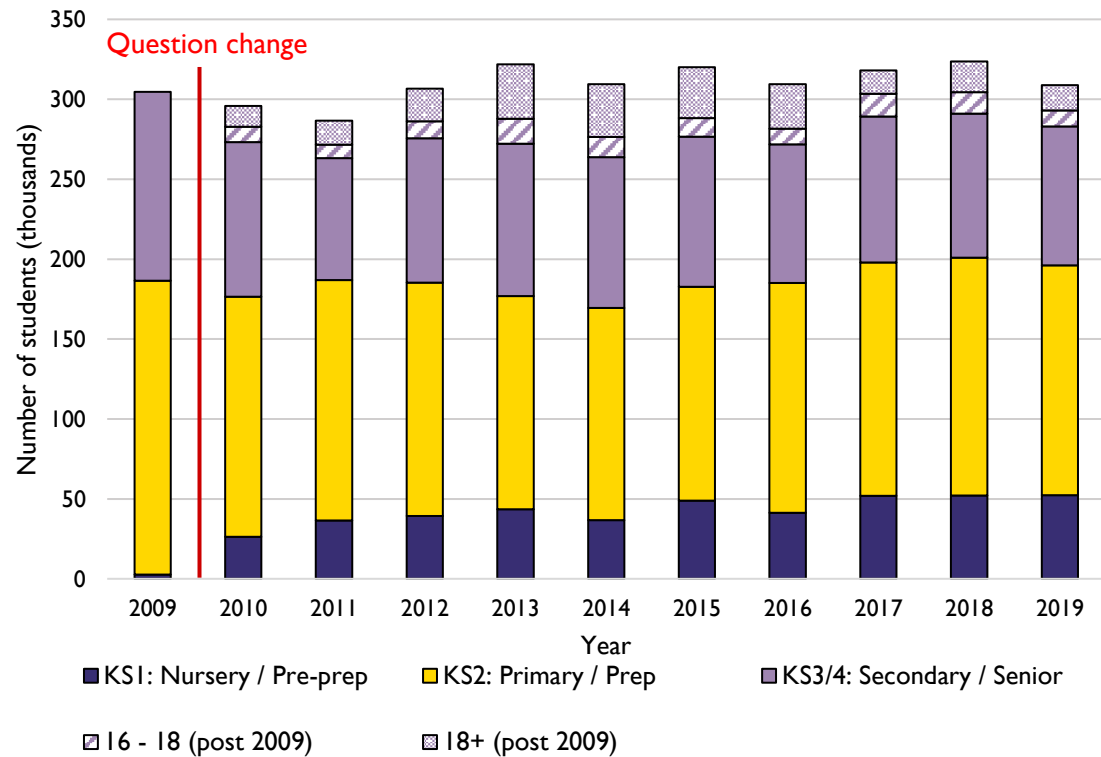

Educational events

Figure 12 shows the number of children/students attending organised educational events during the year, which took place either in the Cathedral or were organised by the Cathedral and took place elsewhere, broken down by age / year groups. Prior to 2010, the Secondary/Senior category included those aged 16-18 and 18+, but from 2010 these age groups were reported separately.

The total number of children and young people attending organised educational events in cathedrals in 2019 was 309,000. This is a similar figure to a decade ago in 2009 (305,000). The largest proportion of these visits was made by Primary/prep school children, accounting for 47% (143,900) of all students in 2019, followed by 28% of visits by Secondary/Senior school children (86,900 children) in 2019.

Despite accounting for the largest proportions, over the last decade attendances of Primary and Secondary groups have declined (22% decrease in Primary, 26% decrease in Secondary).

Figure 12: Children and young people attending educational events at Church of England cathedrals (annually), 2009-2019¹⁰

⁸ Key Stage 1 (KS1): Ages 5-7 / Years 1 and 2; Key Stage 2 (KS2): Ages 7-11 / Years 3, 4, 5 and 6; Key Stage 3 (KS3): Ages 11-14 / Years 7, 8 and 9; Key Stage 4 (KS4): Ages 14-16 / Years 10 and 11; 16 – 18: those in further education such as in sixth form or college, for example Years 12, 13 and 14; 18+: those in higher education, for example university.

Cathedral schools

Figure 13 shows the proportion of students attending schools associated with Church of England cathedrals, broken down by age / year groups. Due to the differing number of cathedrals reporting each year, proportions rather than actual figures are shown, to allow for year-on-year comparison; actual data are however available in Appendix I.

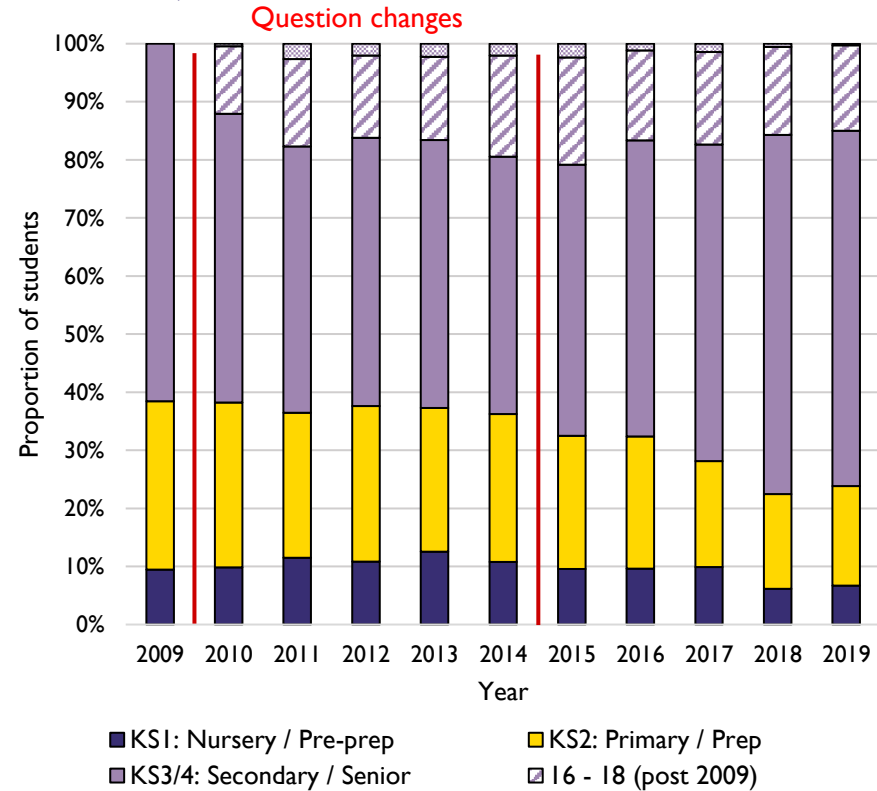

The data relate to schools or academies that are part of a cathedral foundation or have formal links/relationship with a cathedral during the academic year. From 2015, question wording was changed to clarify that this meant formal governance links.

As with Figure 13, until 2009 the Secondary/Senior category included ages 16-18 and 18+, from which point these age groups were reported separately. It should be noted that a larger number of cathedrals reported these data from 2015 onwards.

In 2019, 22,800 students were reported attending cathedral schools or schools formally associated with cathedrals. This section is based on the 25 cathedrals that reported having students attending their schools in 2019, which is an increase from the 20 cathedrals that provided information in 2009.

The largest proportion of those attending cathedral schools in 2019 was at secondary / senior level, which accounted for 61% of all students reported and consistently accounts for the highest proportion of students every year. Primary / prep accounted for the next highest proportion in 2018 (17%), followed by 16-18 year olds (15%), nursery / pre-prep (7%) and 18+ (<1%).

Figure 13: Children and young people attending schools associated with Church of England cathedrals, 2009-2019¹¹

⁹ Key Stage 1 (KS1): Ages 5-7 / Years 1 and 2; Key Stage 2 (KS2): Ages 7-11 / Years 3, 4, 5 and 6; Key Stage 3 (KS3): Ages 11-14 / Years 7, 8 and 9; Key Stage 4 (KS4): Ages 14-16 / Years 10 and 11; 16 – 18: those in further education such as in sixth form or college, for example Years 12, 13 and 14; 18+: those in higher education, for example university.

Cathedral activities and community engagement

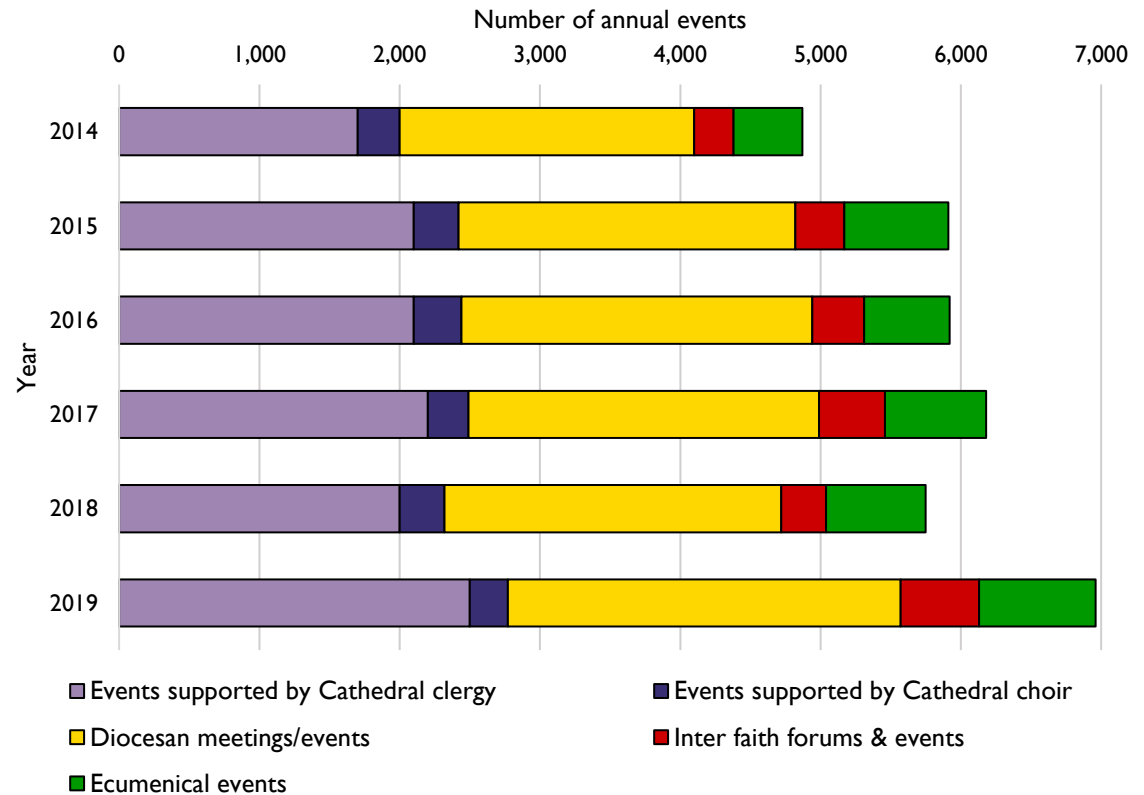

Activities of cathedral personnel

Figure 14 shows activities of Church of England cathedral personnel away from the cathedral itself, first reported in 2014. It should be noted that not all cathedrals responded to this question.

In 2019, there were 2,800 events that were supported by either cathedral clergy or choirs. 2,800 diocesan events/meetings were supported. 560 inter faith forums/meetings were supported and 830 ecumenical events were supported.

All data for 2019 were the highest on record, except for events supported by Cathedral choirs, which were the lowest on record. While more Cathedrals provided data to these questions in 2019 (39) than the first time these questions were asked in 2014 (35). The increases shown are not solely due to more Cathedrals providing data (38 in 2018; 41 in 2017; 38 in 2016; 37 in 2015).

Figure 14: Activities of Church of England cathedral personnel, 2014-2019¹²

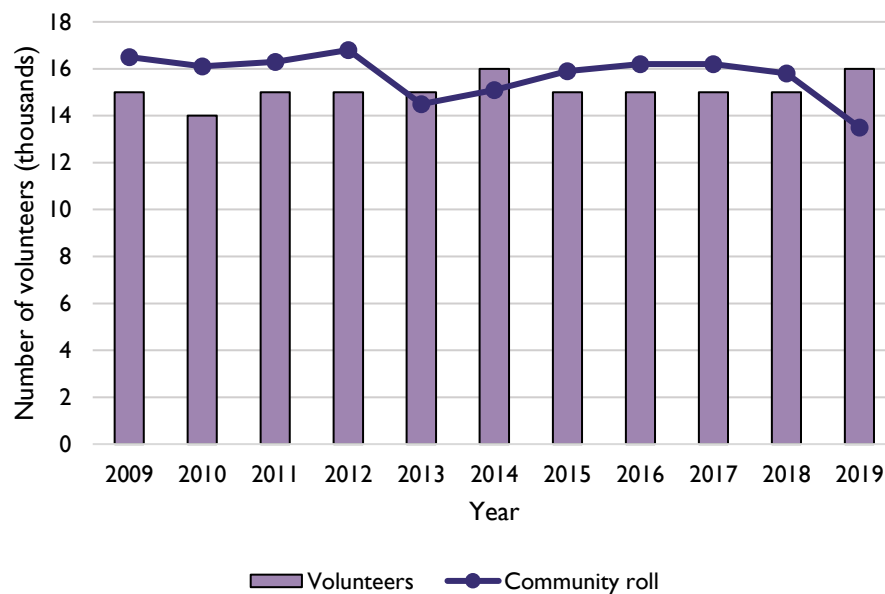

¹⁰ First reported in 2014.

Volunteers and Community Roll

Figure 15 shows the total number of people volunteering at Church of England cathedrals (including servers, welcomers, stewards, flower arrangers, committee members and other unpaid posts). The number of people on the cathedral Community Roll is also shown in Figure 15 for comparison. Lay members aged 16 years and over, who are baptised and are resident in the cathedral parish or, if not resident, have habitually attended public worship in the cathedral during a period of six months prior to enrolment, are entitled to have their names entered upon the roll of a cathedral. The Community Roll was renewed in 2019, which may account for the notable change from 2018.

Figure 15: Number of Volunteers and the Community Roll at Church of England cathedrals, 2009-2019¹¹

There were 16,000 people reported as volunteers in cathedrals during 2019, which have remained relatively stable over the last decade.

The figure of 13,500 for community roll in 2019 is a 15% decrease from the figure of 15,800 reported in 2018 and an 18% decrease over the decade (16,500 in 2009). The 2019 figure is 7% smaller than the last time community roll was renewed (2013; 14,500).

¹¹ Community Roll was renewed in 2013 and 2019.

Music in Cathedrals

Choristers and voluntary choir members

Figure 16 shows numbers of Choristers in Church of England cathedrals, broken down by youth choirs (boys and girls) and adult choirs (men and women). Prior to 2013, only the total adult Lay Clerks / Choral Scholars figures were recorded, and from 2013 split into men and women.

From 2010 onwards, cathedrals were asked to record those in voluntary choirs at Church of England cathedrals, which is shown in Figure 17 and again is broken down by youth (boy and girls) and adult (men and women) choirs.

¹² Prior to 2013, only the total adult Lay Clerks / Choral Scholars figures were recorded; from 2013 this was split into men and women.

¹³ Voluntary choir members recorded from 2010 onwards.

In 2019, 1,500 total youth choristers and 510 lay clerks / choral scholars (i.e. adults) were reported as providing choral music for cathedrals. The total number of choristers and choir members across all ages has not changed since 2015 (2,000). There were slightly more girl choristers (770) than boy choristers (730) in 2019, whereas in 2009 there were 140 more boy choristers than girl choristers. The number of adult choristers has increased from 470 in 2009 to 510 in 2018.

Voluntary choirs in 2019 reported slightly fewer members (1,800 in total) than in cathedral choirs (2,000), and a higher proportion were adults (72%) compared with cathedral choirs (26%). In particular, volunteer choirs were made up of more women than cathedral choirs; 45% of all members in volunteer choirs were women in 2018, compared to just 4% in cathedral choirs.

Number of choirs

In 2012, additional questions were introduced asking for total number of choirs (rather than just members), broken down by male, female and mixed choirs. From 2013 onwards, visiting choirs were also added to the question, as is reflected in Figure 18b.

In 2019, the numbers of male, female and mixed choirs in cathedrals were reported at 40, 30 and 90 respectively. The number of visiting choirs in 2019 was reported at 970.

Musicians

Table 1 shows the number of musicians in Church of England cathedrals, broken down by whether they are regular or occasional. They are also further broken down by age and gender. The data were first reported in 2013 but split into two categories from 2014 onwards (regular and occasional).

Comparison with previous years' musicians data is not advised due to potential data quality issues; however the 2018 data collection form was amended and clarified to address this issue for the future.

Westminster Abbey 2019: <5 adult (male) regular musicians; no occasional musicians.

In 2019, a total of 290 regular and 880 occasional musicians were reported as being involved in services at Church of England cathedrals. In terms of regular musicians, girls and boys accounted for around 17%, whilst adults accounted for 83%. Adults also accounted for over three quarters of all reported occasional musicians (78%).

Appendix I: Data Tables

All data are rounded to the nearest 10 or 100, where appropriate. Where data are greater than zero but fewer than 5, “<5” is shown. Totals are calculated from unrounded data and are shown in bold. Data for previous years may have been updated since earlier reports, due to re-estimation. Data for Westminster Abbey are not included in tabular totals but disclosed by way of footnotes.

Persons attending more than one service on the same day were, wherever possible, counted only once no matter how many services they attended.

Midweek count includes services held Monday – Saturday.

Table 3: Total annual attendance at regular services at Church of England cathedrals, 2013-2019

Westminster Abbey 2019: 84,800 annual attendance at regular schools' services, and no fresh expressions of Church or other regular services attendance.

Numbers in attendance at regular services are not included in average weekly attendance figures in 2, as they are not part of the weekly calendar of services.

The wording of the question asking about regular services was changed in 2013 to ensure the weekly pattern of services was not included. This resulted in a reduced total, hence only data for 2013 onwards are shown in Table 3.

Methodology

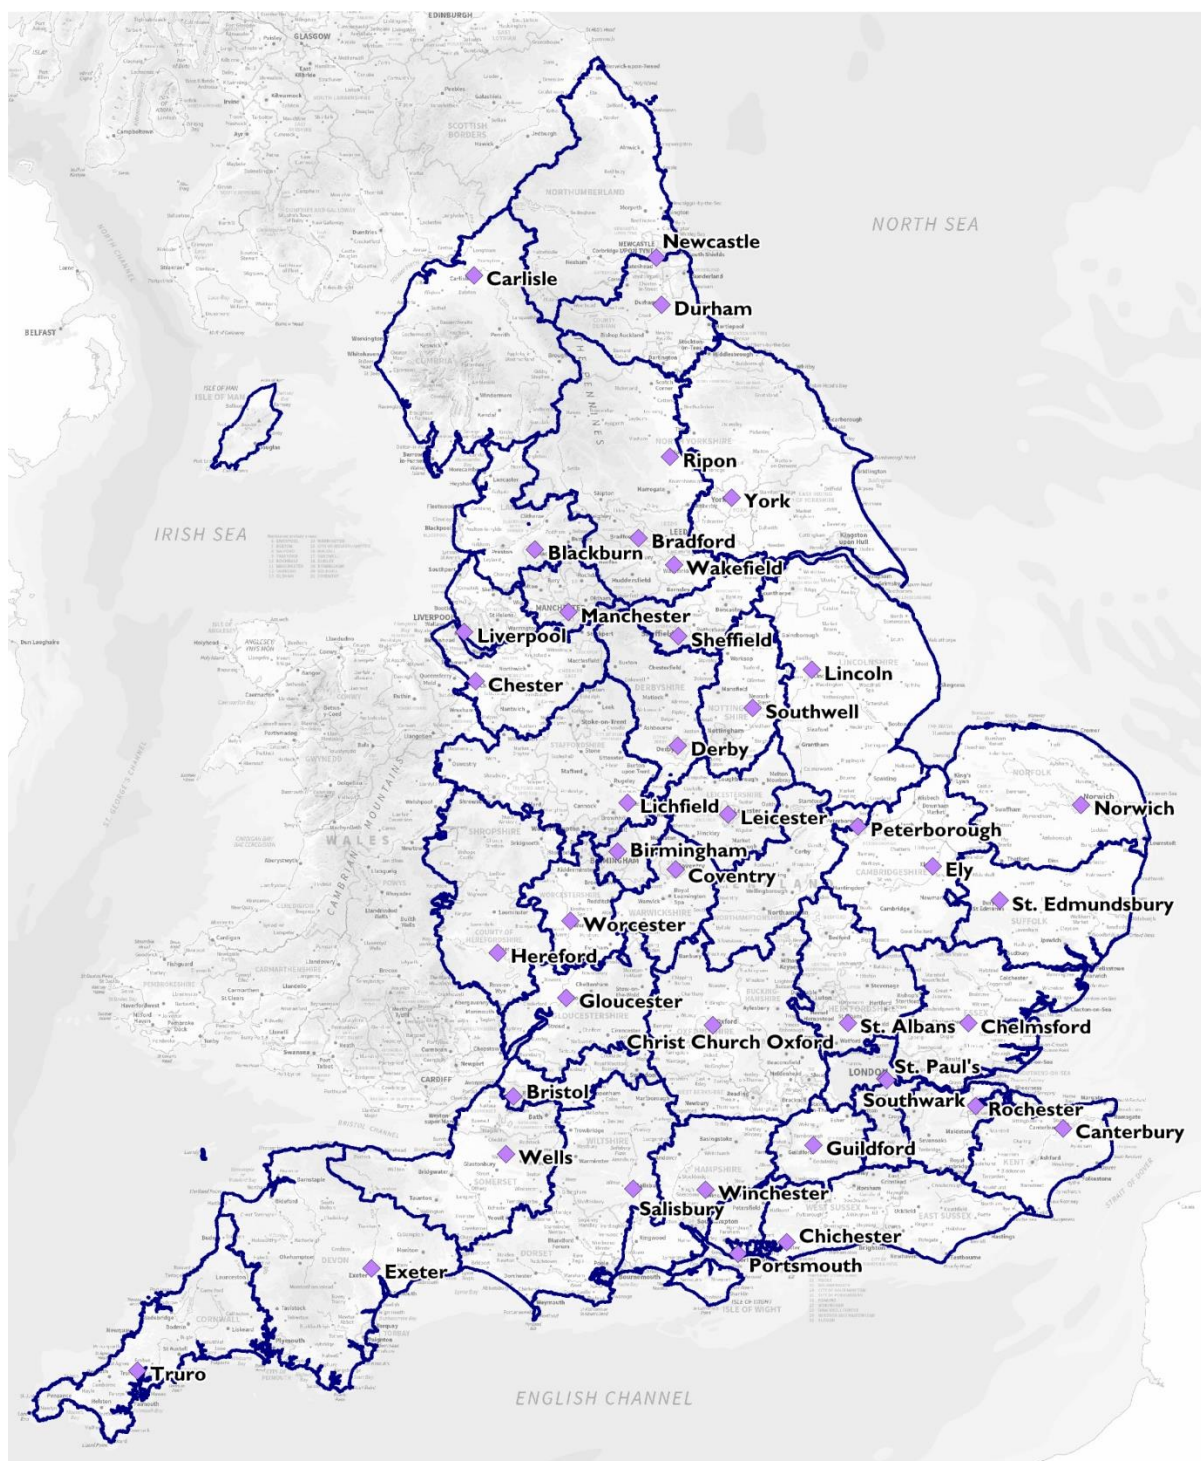

There are 42 Church of England cathedrals in mainland England, listed below, all of which participated in this exercise along with Westminster Abbey (which is not a cathedral, but a Royal Peculiar). Figure 9 on the next page shows the location of all participating cathedrals from which data have been aggregated to show the totals reported in Figures 1 to 18 (names listed below, with diocese name in brackets if not already in the name of the cathedral). Westminster Abbey is not shown on Figure 19 because data from them are reported separately via footnotes accompanying tables 1 to 18.

Wells Cathedral (Bath and Wells diocese)	Gloucester Cathedral	Rochester Cathedral
Birmingham Cathedral	Guildford Cathedral	Cathedral & Abbey Church of Saint Alban (St. Albans diocese)
Blackburn Cathedral	Hereford Cathedral	St Edmundsbury Cathedral (St. Edmundsbury & Ipswich diocese)

Data in this report have been collated from the annual cathedral returns completed each year by Head Vergers/Cathedral Administrators and Deans. The form in Appendix 2 was sent electronically to all Church of England cathedrals, and Westminster Abbey, in autumn 2019. Data were checked upon the form being returned, and any anomalies or missing data queried directly with the cathedral and amended where necessary. In the case of no response from the query, estimation was carried out based on previous years data for attendance measures, whilst blank fields were taken as zeros for all other measures. Where data had been missing in 2018 but provided for 2019, previous estimation was updated using an average of the surrounding years. While all figures in this report have been rounded to the most relevant significant figures, totals and averages were calculated before rounding, thus row and column totals will not always agree exactly with the sum of the stated amounts. Where data are smaller than 5 (but greater than zero), <5 is shown in the tables, rather than the actual number.

As has been the case since 2016, all visitor figures in this report are taken from the returns provided by cathedrals themselves and not from external sources; in reports prior to 2016, visitor figures for Canterbury, London, Westminster Abbey and, prior to 2011, York Minster, were taken from www.alva.org.uk.
