A recap on what not to forget

Don't forget the hierarchy

Hierarchy is a system that is used by designers to make sure that the most important parts of their design catch the viewer's attention first.

Don't use too many fonts

Having too many fonts in your design can be a distraction. I recommend using different font variations or a maximum of two fonts.

Don't forget about your audience

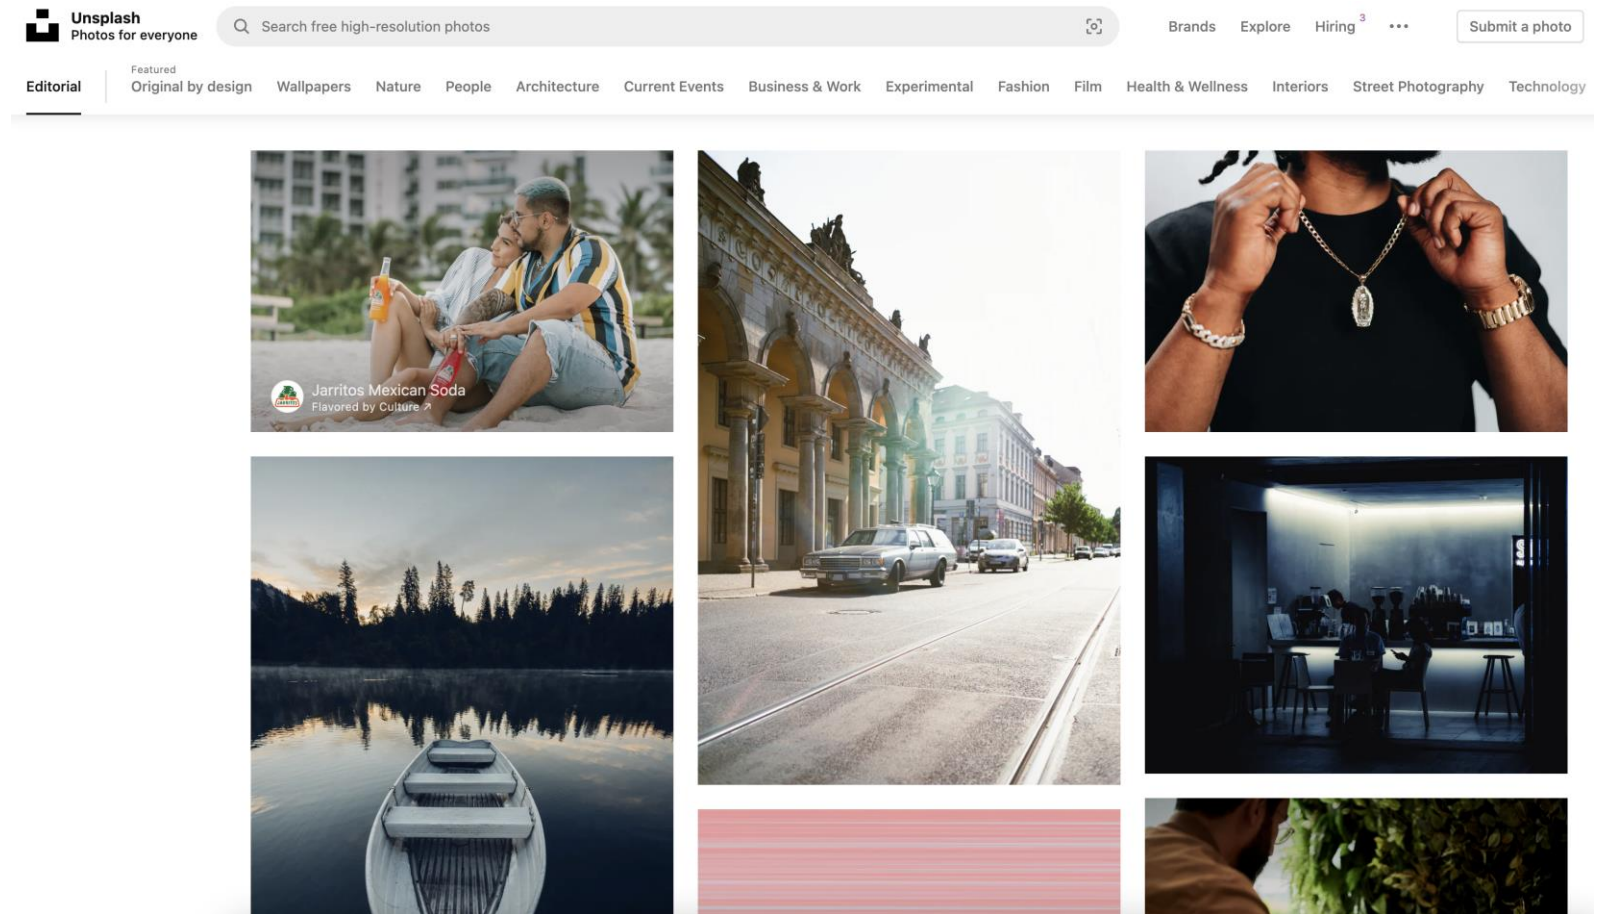

Always remember who you are designing for.

Customisable Graphics

The screenshot shows the 'Create church social graphics' page. The header includes the website URL and navigation links for 'THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND', 'A CHURCH NEAR YOU', 'THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY', and 'THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK'. A sidebar on the left lists options: 'Resource Hub', 'Digital Downloads', 'Free stock photography', 'Create church social graphics' (selected), 'Create church videos', and 'How do we license these resources?'. The main content area has a purple header with the title 'Create church social graphics' and a description: 'This Lent, create customised social media graphics to promote your services and events. You can create Twitter, Facebook or Instagram graphics with the #LiveLent branding.' Below this are tabs for 'For Facebook', 'For Twitter', and 'For Instagram'. The 'For Facebook' tab is active, showing a form with a 'TITLE*' field, a 'SUBTITLE*' field, and a text area for details. A preview of the generated graphic is shown on the right.

Below this are links for '#LiveLent Weekly Videos - Week 4', '#LiveLent Weekly Videos - Week 5', and '#LiveLent Weekly Videos - Week 6'. There are also links for 'Open Church Giving Video - Female Vicar' and 'Open Church Giving Video - Male Vicar'. The main content area displays three video thumbnails: 'SHARING THE STORY' (blue), 'LISTENING FOR ECHOES' (purple), and 'BEING FOUND BY JESUS' (green). Each thumbnail has a right arrow and a caption below it: '#LiveLent weekly videos - week 4', '#LiveLent weekly videos - week 5', and '#LiveLent weekly videos - week 6'.
