Graphics and copy for Church's own social media accounts.

Branded email signatures

Branded Powerpoint template.

2. Reflections and activities

Eight downloadable podcasts look in some depth at what the Bible has to say about Generosity. There are also reflections and activities – ways to put learning into action.

3. Resources

New for 2022 – Liverpool Diocese has developed fun resources to help leaders explore generosity with young people

New for 2022 – resources to help engage the wider community with Generosity Week

The Diocese of Leeds has developed materials for exploring generosity and stewardship with children and young people.

Celebrating our Legacy – exploring the legacy we have received from the generosity of others, and what our role might be in passing on that legacy to future generations. Leaders' guide and participants' booklet available.

4. Liturgy

There is a selection of service outlines, sermon starters and forms of prayer for churches to adapt and use, including:

Eight daily morning prayer services

Weekly service material on both Grace and Gratitude

Eucharist celebrating Generosity

Eucharist celebrating Gratitude

Service of the Word celebrating Generosity

Service of the Word celebrating Gratitude

Service content packs covering both Generosity and Gratitude.

5. What happens next?

Generosity doesn't end after Generosity Week. These resources are designed to build on the interest and make generosity an integral part of church life. The following resources are designed to help guide churches through their next steps.

Generous Church Toolkit – for the PCC to reflect on, highlighting what's going well and where the learning points are

Generosity Fika – a half day programme for small groups to explore God's generosity to us

Generous Church Review – for the PCC or Finance Committee to annual review generosity.

And don't forget...

On September 25th the national online service is from St Andrew's church Tangmere. The preacher is the Revd Esther Prior who has inspiring testimonies of generosity in her work in two very different parishes.
