“I used the At The Heart of Christmas logo and branding on our Benefice Christmas card and it was really helpful to have all the guidelines and image options. Thank you.”
Despite the situation being relatively easier than Christmas 2020, churches were still struggling to navigate this year and plan – especially once Omicron hit the UK. Services were cancelled or moved online, and many resisted buying physical resources in case they were forced to shut.

Feedback suggested our regular churchgoers would have valued more content throughout Advent and lots asking for the campaign app to be used throughout the year.

Partnership with the Giving Team meant generosity content fed through the campaign – however for 2022 there's an opportunity to plan for Giving Tuesday in Advent.

Need to consider how our printed and digital resources can help encourage physical attendance during Advent and Christmas 2022 with the group who would usually attend at this time of year but haven't since the pandemic.

Online worship is continuing to engage a key audience – what would success look like for this group?
Advent and Christmas 2022

Following a series of difficult Christmases, we’re all hoping for a Christmas to welcome people back to services and events that haven’t been possible in recent years.

Some won’t have been to church since before the pandemic. Traditions may have changed. Church might no longer like “a thing we do at Christmas” for some in our communities.

The Advent and Christmas campaign for 2022 needs to welcome people to our churches.

With the World Cup final taking place the last Sunday before Christmas and recent changes, having a more ‘normal’ Christmas will still mean we need to do some things differently.

AN INVITATION TO ... FIND REST

by A N Other

The end of the year is approaching. The remains from Christmas celebrations will probably still be lying around for a few more days. But before long it will be time for a good time for a clear out.

There are times in life when we need to let go in order to receive.

Sometimes it’s just a matter of practicality; our hands are too full of stuff in order to take hold of the gift someone is wanting to give us.

At other times, it’s the number of things that fill our minds or trouble our hearts. We just don’t have the capacity to take on anything new, even when it is potentially life-giving or even life-saving.

Reflection

The invitation this Christmas time to ‘Follow the Star’ is no exception. It’s a journey that promises life and to grasp it fully will mean letting go of things that stop us moving forward.

It might be fear or anxiety that prevents us stepping out on the journey. It might be shame, or hurts we have carried for many years. Letting go might mean choosing to put something right.

In today’s reading, we hear Jesus makes what is sometimes referred to as ‘The Great Invitation’. Jesus invites us to let go of the burdens we carry and receive the gift of rest, forgiveness and peace that he offers to each and every one of us.

Read Matthew 11.28-30

Jesus said, ‘Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.’

Prayer

Loving God, you invite all of us to come closer to you. We pray that you would give us the courage to move towards you. Amen.

The Great Invitation

How can you equip your congregation to invite people to services and events this year?
World Cup 2022

- Watch – watch with others at your local sports club or pub and offer to lead carols and share a sport and faith testimony after the game, with an invitation to your Christmas services.

- Screen - Screen the Game in Church with refreshments. Showing Television or Films in Church – CCLI. Follow with an invitation to something more.

- School – Host a Christmas Sports Day instead of your regular collective worship. KICK works in schools regularly weaving a range of sport and Christian values Who we are | Kick

- Socialise - Host a Sports Quiz and Carols The Sports Quiz (christiansinsport.org.uk)

- Go – Host a Christmas themed, Sports Mission event in a public place. You could organise a simple football game and multisports, interweaving Advent and Christmas themes into the activities. Find ideas: Church Support Hub | How to get started

- Sports Chaplaincy – There are many Sports Clubs and Gyms that have Sports Chaplains. Talk to Sports Chaplaincy UK to see if there are Sports Chaplains serving in a club near your church. Perhaps invite them to share more about what they do at one of your Advent or Christmas coffee mornings or meals. You might see there is gap in your areas Sports Chaplaincy UK | Serving the community of sport
