

GENERAL SYNOD

CHURCH OF ENGLAND PENSIONS (APPLICATION OF CAPITAL FUNDS) MEASURE

Explanatory Notes

The draft Measure extends the period during which the Church Commissioners may resort to capital to meet their obligations in respect of certain pensions for a further seven years, to 31st December 2032.

Background and summary

1. The draft Church of England Pensions (Application of Capital Funds) Measure extends the period during which the Church Commissioners may resort to capital to meet their obligations in respect of certain clergy pensions and certain pensions for Commissioners' former staff for a further seven years, to 31st December 2032.
2. The Church Commissioners are responsible, under section 31 of the Church of England Pensions Measure 2018, for meeting the cost of clergy pensions payable in respect of service carried out before 1st January 1998<sup>1</sup> (i.e. under "the past service scheme"). The Commissioners are also responsible, under section 17 of the Church Commissioners Measure 1947, for meeting the cost of pensions payable to former Commissioners' staff under the Church Commissioners Superannuation Scheme which, like the past service scheme for clergy, relates to service carried out before 1st January 1998. These provisions were originally contained in the Pensions Measure 1997 which was repealed and consolidated in the Church of England Pensions Measure 2018.
3. When the 1997 Measure was passed, it gave the Church Commissioners a power to apply capital funds for the purpose of meeting their liability in respect of the past service scheme and the Superannuation Scheme, but only for a period of not more than seven years from the commencement of that Measure in 1998. That period has subsequently been extended by a series of further Measures, passed in 2003, 2009 and 2015, in each case by a further seven years.
4. The original version of the 2003 Measure submitted to the Ecclesiastical Committee in January 2002 provided, in addition to the renewal of the power to apply capital, for the possibility of an unlimited number of further extensions of the power for successive periods of seven years, to be achieved by Orders made by the Commissioners. Any such Order would have been laid before the General Synod for approval and then laid before Parliament as a statutory instrument under the negative resolution procedure.
5. The Ecclesiastical Committee was willing to find the extension of the power expedient but it was opposed to any future extensions of the period otherwise than by further Measure because of Parliament's wish to retain control over the application of the Commissioners' capital funds due to the origin of some of those funds. The original version of the 2003 Measure was therefore withdrawn in the light of the Ecclesiastical

Committee's expressed concern and taken back to the General Synod with the relevant provisions removed. The 2003 Measure was then brought back to the Ecclesiastical Committee in July 2002, on which occasion it found the Measure to be expedient.<sup>2</sup>

6. In the light of the view expressed by the Ecclesiastical Committee in 2002, all subsequent extensions of the power to resort to capital have been made by specific Measures extending the power by seven years at a time. The same approach is adopted with the current draft Measure.
