

Delegate to attend the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church

13-15 June 2024

The Primus and the Standing Committee of the Scottish Episcopal Church have invited a delegate to attend their General Synod which will be held from 13–15 June 2024. The meeting will be “in person” and will take place at St Paul’s and St George’s Church, York Place, Edinburgh.

The Synod will start at 10.30am on Thursday 13 June and will end at lunchtime on Saturday 15 June. The Opening Eucharist will take place on the morning of 13 June. The ecumenical and interfaith guests will be welcomed in the opening session following the Eucharist and the delegate will also be invited to their General Synod dinner to be held in the Royal Scots Club, 29-31 Abercromby Place, Edinburgh, on the evening of Thursday 13 June. Further details regarding timing will follow.

Unfortunately they regret that they cannot offer to contribute towards the cost of the delegate attending the Synod.
