Let's chat!

What is the best thing someone has ever done for you?

What new thing about Easter did the Cheeky Pandas teach you?

Let's look!

Cut out each word of the memory verse below. Put them inside plastic Easter eggs and hide them around your home or garden. As a family team can you find all the words again and put them in the right order?

1. Prepare the area for decorating biscuits and wash your hands.
2. Break up the chocolate egg into large pieces with your hands.
3. Spread icing on the biscuit.
4. Then cover the biscuit with broken egg pieces and sprinkles. You are turning something messy into something beautiful!
5. Enjoy eating your messy egg biscuits together.
6. Top tip - if you want to be even messier, use filled eggs!

How much do you love your Messy Egg Biscuits? Colour in the hearts to give your biscuits a score out of 10

Let's Pray!

We all make a mess of things sometimes,
if there's anything you need to say sorry for, spend a moment doing that, knowing that God is full of forgiveness for you.

Spend time thanking and praising God for Easter together.

"Dear God, Thank you for Jesus and His gift to us, himself.
Thank you for that great gift. That if we believe in our friend Jesus you give us new life. What a happy Easter that is.
Amen"

Let's make

The Cheeky Pandas learn about Easter by hearing about five important moments in the Easter Story. Each of these moments could be represented by a different colour.

- 1. Palm Sunday: Green (for the palm leaves)
- 2. The Last Supper: Red (for the wine shared at the meal)
- 3. Good Friday: Brown (for the wooden cross)
- 4. Easter Saturday: Black (for the disciples waiting)
- 5. Easter Sunday: Yellow (for the sunrise on Easter Sunday morning, when the women found the empty tomb)

As a family gather as many different items from around the house or garden to represent the different colours of Easter and make them into a giant collage that tells the Easter Story. Take a photo of your collage to remember it before putting all the items back again!

Can you colour this Easter Egg in with all the colours of Easter?

"For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son. God gave his Son so that whoever believes in him may not be lost, but have eternal life." John 3:16 ICB
