

Ministry Development Board - Lay Member

A new Ministry Development Board (MDB) is replacing the current Ministry Council and has a vacancy for a lay person with significant experience in at least one of the following: local church ministry, discernment, theological formation or professional development.

The MDB provides oversight of the work of the Ministry Development Team which includes national support of vocations, discernment, ministerial formation, lay ministry, leadership development and ministerial terms of service.

The MDB normally meets four times per year, including an overnight residential meeting and two virtual meetings. Members of the MDB will be appointed for an initial 5 year term.
